

CVCA SAFETY AND SANITATION COMMITTEE UPDATE:

1. ARREST UPDATE:

On 01/13/13 at approximately 2220 hrs, immediately after 3 armed commercial robberies in the NED and ND districts, units were deployed to conduct business checks on all convenience stores in the ND district. As P/O Perfetto (5C27, 33rd St and Greenmount Ave foot detail) approached the 7-11 store at 401 E 33rd St , he saw an individual wearing a gray sweatshirt, gray hooded jacket and black ski mask which covered his face. Officer stopped same to F.I. him. P/O Green (5C12, Barkclay Ave crime suppression detail) responded as back-up. At this point individual fled on foot into a nearby residential area. A perimeter was set-up and while conducting a yard to yard search, the suspect was taken into custody. As the suspect fled he was observed holding his side. Recovered on the path which the suspect fled was a long barreled replica pistol. Arrested was Mr David Jason Abrahams, B/M, 5/22/92 SID# 3398564. CWR notified and responded to the ND. Mr Abrahams also had an open CDS arrest warrant.

Thanks to the officers for excellent police work and to Sgt Kenneth C. Bailey and Major Tapp-Harper for the report. The CVCA Safety Committee will work with Steve Gerwitz. and the Courtwatch program of the CVCBD Safety Advisory Council to make sure that his arrest is listed on the next Court Watch Report and that the case is followed through to proper sentencing.

2. CVCBD PROGRAM REVIEW: Questions: Contact guidahome@comcast.net .

The CVCA Safety and Sanitation Committees will meet jointly on Wednesday, January 30, 2013 at 7 p.m. at 2434 St. Paul Street to discuss the CVCBD=s mix of services pursuant to the CVCBD Program Committee=s request for input from the community, as recently reported by email from Jennifer Erickson and John Henderson, CVCA reps to the CVCBD Board. If you are interested in attending this meeting, please RSVP to guidahome@comcast.net for the location.

The objective of the meeting is to evaluate the past year=s programs and to identify the best complement of services the CVCBD can provide in the 2014 fiscal year, starting July 1, 2013. We will be focusing on: a) the scope of services CVCBD is to provide to the community; b) CVCBD successes and challenges to meeting objectives; and c) and the evolving needs of the community to help the CVCBD prioritize services as it commits to service improvements. Your input will help the CVCBD Program Committee shape a DRAFT FY14 Program Plan for submission to the CVCBD Board.

The CVCA Safety and Sanitation Committees will summarize the comments they receive and deliver them to the CVCA reps, no later than March 1. Members of the CVCA Safety and Sanitation Committees, have first hand knowledge of the operations of the CVCBD Safety and Sanitation Programs through attendance at monthly meetings of the CVCBD Safety Advisory Council and the CVCBD Program Committee, and by working closely with CVCBD staff on Safety and Sanitation issues particularly when answering questions from residents.
